Barn Burned.

An alarm of fire was sent in from Box 51 at Maple Grove Friday afternoon about 2 o'clock. The alarm was sent in by Peter Smith who discovered a fire in the Rensselaer company's barn on the corner of Alger street. The hose carts in the vicinity were soon on hand and although the house leaked badly and the water pressure was low yet effective work was done and it was not necessary for the fire department to come from the village. The barn is a complete loss together with some agricultural implements. It is fully insured.
The cause of the fire is unknown, though some children are thought to have started it.

and Cady and Cunningham and Dalton, respectively. Dr. Boon and P. H.
Hennsey were umpires. Follett's team won by a score of 17 to 15.

Presented With a Ring.

A pleasant party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Loftus on Columbus street Friday evening when a number of young friends called and pre-

Dropped Dead in Potato Field.

Last Saturday noon, D. B. Leray and son and hired help were planting potatoes in the lot when John Rush, their workman, complained of pain over his heart. He rested on his hoe only to fall to the ground a corpse, so sudden did the end. Mr. Leray and family tried all available means to revive him with no success.
Deceased is a native of Ireland, where he has a wife and family, and two brothers in Troy, N. Y., so he informed Mr. Leray.
But no address could be found among his belongings, only a Catholic prayer book with name written in, Selectman and overseer of poor, Willard Sumner, took charge of the remains which were interred in the Eames cemetery Sunday.
Mr. Sumner will make every effort to find any relatives. The deceased was a peaceable, sober man and had only been in town a short time. [Troy, N. Y., papers please copy.]

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Public Schools Closed--To Repeat the Play--Distinguished Guests to Attend Commencement.

The Schools Closed.

The public schools closed Friday for the summer vacation. Exhibitions of school work were held in all but the Broad Brook school and the schools on Spring street, where exhibitions were held a week ago. The exhibitions were of the same general character as those held last week, which were described in this paper, and were very interesting and creditable, showing that faithful work has been done in all quarters during the past year by both teachers and pupils.

To Repeat the Play.

The Williams College Dramatic association, which recently presented "The Two Buzards" very successfully, will repeat the performance at the opera house next Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. for the benefit of the college baseball association. The performance and the purpose for which it is to be given will be of interest to the alumni in town and the house will probably be filled.

Williams Freshman Banquet.

The Williams college freshmen class held their annual banquet at Saratoga, N.
Y., Friday night. The toastmaster was Arthur C. Patterson of New York city.
Responses were made by Russell C. Gibbs of Newton, John Ray of Middleport, N.
Y., Charles N. Prouty, Jr., of Spencer, Charles D. Malespence of West Barn-stable, Harold A. Bates of Syracuse, N.
Y., Francis R. Mayvis of Akron, O., Wallace S. Farnham of South Windsor, Ct., and A. Dickinson Jenkins of Portland, Me.

There was much talk in town Friday about the excellence of the graduation exercises of the high school Thursday evening. A noticeable feature was the distinctness with which all the speakers were heard in the large auditorium of the Congregational church, in which the exercises were held. This was largely due to the effective training in oratory during the year by Miss Orton, and to the special drilling by Mr. Branch of Williams college in preparation for the occasion.

Quite a number of the under classmen have already left town for their homes.
The annual football game between Williams and Cornell will be played at Buffalo, November 13.

A big crowd will attend the Amherst-Williams game on Weston field Monday afternoon. Many alumni will be in town and will help to swell the crowd. It will be a very exciting game.

People are beginning to arrive for the commencement season and the Greylock has a good number of guests. Many more will arrive early next week.

W. S. B. Hopkins, Jr., of Worcester, is visiting in town.

The Greylock, which has usually been closed about the middle of October, will be kept open this season till November 1.
Williams college has purchased a small piece of land between Griffin hall and W.
O. Adams' place of the Dodd estate.

Austin Blair has been engaged as night nurse for J. A. Foster of Water street, who has been severely ill for some time. Mr. Blair is an excellent man for this work and the family was fortunate in securing his services.

C. D. Brown, the baker, found a laundry package on one of his shelves a day or two ago and is puzzled to know how it came there and to whom it belongs.

Mrs. Thomas Fowler, who has been quite sick for a few days, is improving.

Mrs. Moses King has gone to Pittsburg to spend a few weeks with her daughter.
Mrs. R. J. Ruberg and children, who had been visiting for two weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. B. Roberts, have returned to their home in Boston.

Rev. H. J. Ruberg, who with his wife is spending the summer in Florida, where he was formerly pastor of the Baptist church, spent a short time with friends in town this week, accompanied by one of his daughters who lives in Florida.

There will be no service at the Methodist church Sunday morning or evening.
It has been the custom of this church for many years to have no services on the day the baccalaureate sermon is preached.

James E. Penbody, who is studying at Harvard university, is in town. He was formerly principal of the high school here.

Superintendent W. G. Mitchell will attend the summer school at Laurel park, Northampton, in July.

George M. Hopkins has purchased of Mrs. W. B. Blake his house and lot on Hoxie avenue. The price is not made public.

A Williams athletic meet will be held on Weston field Monday and the second annual contest for the Gargyle cup will take place at 10 a. m.

Miss Anna Collier of Coxsack, N. Y., and formerly of this town, is visiting friends here.

Miss Louise Hopkins, daughter of Rev.
Henry Hopkins of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of friends in town.

IS IDA'S MOTHER

The Murderous Jap's Victim
a Daughter of Mrs.
Mary Hollis.

A SISTER A CHINAMAN'S WIFE

News of the Attempted Murder of Ida and Suicide of Wau Chita Carried to Mrs. Hollis by a Transcript Man. Ida Was in Williamstown Last Week.

A TRANSCRIPT reporter spent considerable time Friday attempting to locate the relatives of Mrs. Wau Chita, whose life was attempted Thursday by her husband in New York city. The story of the murderous assault upon the woman and the suicide of the homicidal husband was given in Friday's paper.

The story as it came from New York was that Wau Chita, a Japanese steward, on the United States monitor, Purifier, became enraged at his wife, who had been Mrs. Ida Spanbury of North Adams, for accidentally breaking two valuable and highly prized vases. In his madness he got a razor and slashed his wife's throat. She was able to break away from him and save her life by leaping from a window. The baffled husband then turned the razor upon himself and gashed his throat so that his life could not be saved. Another alleged cause for the attempted murder and suicide was that Mrs. Wau Chita had recently returned from a visit to North Adams, where she had been to see a child by a former husband and remained longer than her husband desired, thus causing Wau Chita to believe that she was unfaithful.

There was no clue given in the story to connect Mrs. Wau Chita with any North Adams family. The name of the sister, whom it was said she had visited, was not given and there are no Spanburys mentioned in the directory. After some knocking around the reporter learned that there was a family somewhere in the city that had intermarried with Japs and Chinamen. A search was made for that family and a name was obtained very late Friday night. The name was "Hollis" and it was said the family lived on East Main street. Further investigation showed that the family had moved and was supposed to be living on Phoenix street. The reporter made his way for that region of darkness when most good folk were in bed, and he found the Hollis family in no exception to this rule.

William Hollis is a well known employee at the Arnold Print works and it was he who responded to the reporter's unseasonable knocking. The reporter was invited into the kitchen and ventured the query if Mr. Hollis had any relatives in New York city.

"Yes," he said, "there are some people there we know."

"Have you heard from them lately?" asked the reporter. "No, we haven't."

"Then is there a man named Wau Chita, a Jap, who is in some way connected with those relatives?" "There is a man having a name something like that," he answered. The reporter then put the question which carried the startling news of the crime in New York. "Have you not heard that Wau Chita attempted to murder his wife and then cut his own throat?"

"Great Heavens, that was Ida," cried a voice from an adjoining room and there were sounds of a hurried getting out of bed. In a moment a respectable looking woman past middle age came out into the kitchen trembling in her excitement. She was most anxious for news of the affair. "We didn't take no paper this evening, sir. What did it say?" Ida is my daughter."

A copy of THE TRANSCRIPT was shown her and as she was too agitated to read the story it was read for her. Then she told the newspaper man about Ida. Ida is one of her daughters and was born in New York state. She is a child of the first marriage of Mrs. Hollis, whose first husband was John H. Spanbury and who has been dead for some years. Ida had been married before she met Wau Chita and her husband who was Albert Don died several years ago in Chicago. After his death she went to New York city and met

The New Directory.

The new North Adams directory made its appearance today and it is clearly the handsomest and most complete work of the kind ever published in this city. It contains several new features, one being an excellent map of the city, and another is the names of the French residents printed in French as well as in English. It is a book of 500 pages neatly printed on good paper, and the binding, which was done by the Eagle Publishing company of Pittsfield, is very firm. Mr. Larkin, the publisher, has reason to be proud of this issue of the directory, a work which he has published for several years, always successfully and with steady improvement from year to year. The present issue cannot fail to be received with approval and pleasure by the public.

Warning to Ladies.

By an act of the legislature, which becomes a law July 1st next, any woman thereafter wearing in this state the feathers or body of any of our song birds in her bonnet or hat subject herself to a penalty of $10. In effect the act is as follows: "Whoever has in his possession the body or feathers of any wild or undomesticated bird, except game birds, English sparrows, crows, blackbirds, crows, jays, birds of prey or wild geese, or who wears such feathers for the purpose of dress or ornaments shall be punished by a fine of $10."

Special Sermon.

The graduating class of Drury high school will attend the Methodist church in a body Sunday evening, and by request the pastor, Rev. Dr. G. W. Brown, will preach a sermon prepared especially for the occasion.

Another meeting was held in Caledonian hall Friday evening to consider arrangements for the celebration of the queen's jubilee in this city. Several committees reported.

It was decided to have Schubert's orchestra present, for both the literary program and the dance later. Light refreshments will be served in the dining rooms by the Ladies' Relief Corps.

The program, not yet complete, will consist of a principal address probably to be made by Dr. Bascom. This will be followed by very brief addresses by leading citizens touching the various phases of England's national life during 60 years. The committee of arrangements are pleased to announce that Senator Lawrence has consented to act as chairman of the evening; and will introduce the speakers.

Tickets for the jubilee have been placed on sale at W. J. Taylor's store, and have also been sent out to the various large manufacturing concerns hereabouts. The committee of arrangements meet again this evening.

Grammar School Reception.

The G. A. R. Memorial hall, which is fast becoming the popular resort for pleasure parties presented a most beautiful and pleasing sight Friday evening the occasion being a reception held by the members of the graduating class of the grammar school. The young ladies in their pretty white costumes and with smiling faces looked most charming. Dancing was the feature of the evening's entertainment, and was enjoyed by about 50 couples, from 8 until 11 o'clock, music being furnished by Browne and Snow. The patronesses were Miss Adelaide M. Fowler and Miss Mary D. Warren.
